

PETER VAN STRAATEN

Lust

Peter van Straaten is one of the most popular cartoonists in Holland and frequently uses the everyday life as a theme. In these cartoons all comical and tragical elements of everyday life can be found. In October 2006 museum Kunsthal in Rotterdam opens an exhibition on Van Straaten's latest erotic drawings. Spring 2007 the exhibition travels to the Musée de l'érotisme in Paris. The book Lust accompanies both exhibitions. It consists more than 50 'fairy tales for adults'. Absurd scenes where people make love in the public space, on the platform, in a park, during a reception, in the pub, on the pier and on top of the billiard table. Peter van Straaten: 'Consider that it releases the pressure of an old man. The truth is that in my whole life I never picked up a woman. I even don't have the courage to approach them in public.'

Peter van Straaten is an artist and writer, living in Amsterdam. He wrote a serial called Agnes for the weekly Vrij Nederland and his drawings are published in numerous papers as in the daily Het Parool, the weekly Vrij Nederland, the Belgian daily De Morgen and several other magazines.
